

Fincham Downs Moderates Sold-Out New Haven Venture Capital and Angel Event

New Haven, CT, December 2, 2010 – Intellectual Property boutique firm Fincham Downs, LLC is pleased to have co-sponsored and moderated the sold-out Venture Capital and Angel Investors Event held by FundingPost in New Haven, CT, on December 2, 2010. The successful event (<http://www.fundingpost.com/breakfast/reg1.asp?event=180>) drew nearly 90 investors and entrepreneurs.

Mike Downs, a founding partner at Fincham Downs, LLC, presented questions to and moderated an informative panel discussion among several prominent angel and VC investors on issues important to the start-up companies and entrepreneurs in attendance. Topics included the importance of intellectual property protection and the assembly of a strong team to attract investment. “The panelists offered invaluable advice to the entrepreneurs in the crowd on securing funding in today’s tighter economic environment,” said Mr. Downs. “Finding experienced and focused team members to help manage the spectrum of potential business and legal issues is critical for these technology start-ups.”

About Fincham Downs

Fincham Downs, LLC is a streamlined law practice focused solely on Intellectual Property (IP), including patent and trademark procurement, IP portfolio management and monetization of IP assets. Magdalena Fincham, Carson Fincham, and Michael Downs partnered to form Fincham Downs in 2009 to provide business-savvy IP legal services designed to protect and reap value from their client’s IP portfolios. The partners are using their years of experience as inventors and in-house IP counsel to offer a unique, collaborative and innovative approach to meeting their clients’ comprehensive IP needs. From its Ridgefield office in Fairfield County, Connecticut, Fincham Downs provides blue chip services to a national and international clientele.